ANNOUNCEMENT

In presenting to the public the 73d annual Iowa State Fair and Exposition, the directors believe that they have assembled this year the greatest showing of Iowa's agricultural wealth that has ever been held in the state and one of the greatest agricultural and livestock expositions ever witnessed in this country. More than nine months of intensive work have been devoted to preparing this event for the people of Iowa and the midwest. Every new advance in the field of practical farming and livestock raising has been drawn upon to provide new exhibits and new features which will aid in the further development of Iowa's great agricultural industry. Nothing which will contribute toward making this a complete and authoritative cross-section of everything in which the farmers of the state are interested has been omitted.

As will be discovered in a survey of the multitude of features described herein, the exposition has not confined itself to agricultural subjects alone, but has sought to cover every field in which the people of Iowa are concerned. There are attractions and educational displays for every age and every taste.

Particular attention is directed to the many new features which are to be found in the exposition this year. Outstanding among these is the new $350,000 Educational Building and Grandstand which fronts on Grand Avenue, one-half block east of the main entrance to the fair grounds. This beautiful new building is said to be the finest of its kind in the United States and has been constructed under special grant made by the last State Legislature, for the advancement of the educational interests of Iowa. It embraces extensive displays by the public schools, the independent and denominational colleges, the State University, Iowa State College, and the State Teachers' College, as well as a number of valuable exhibits arranged by the Boys and Girls' 4-H Clubs, the State Board of Control, the State Highway Commission and Iowa welfare institutions. The building embraces more than 90,000 square feet of exhibit space and is fireproof throughout. The north side of the building is devoted to the grandstand and provides more than 12,000 seats, giving accommodations for the largest crowds at the afternoon and evening shows.

Another new structure which was completed this year is the $40,000 Fish and Game Building, which is just west of the grandstand. This building contains a complete display of all the wild life of Iowa, and provides one of the most interesting exhibits on the fair grounds.

Other new features this season are the enlarged Feeder Cattle Exhibit which is to be found just inside the main entrance to the Cattle Barn; the loan exhibit by nationally known painters which is hung in connection with the Iowa Art display in the new Art Gallery in the Educational Building; and the United States Shipping Board display, showing all of the important trade routes throughout the world, models of the different merchant ships used in American fleets and one of the largest relief maps ever constructed.

The general features of the fair are described more comprehensively elsewhere in this catalog. However, special attention should be given by each visitor to the following outstanding attractions:

The National Livestock Show, consisting of approximately 6,000 head of horses, cattle, swine and sheep and valued at more than $2,000,000; the farm produce and horticultural exposition, showing the finest products of Iowa's farms and orchards in all parts of the state; the women's exposition, filling two entire buildings and embracing continuous programs each day of the fair; the implement and machinery show, covering more than forty acres; the Boys and Girls' 4-H Club Show, comprising over 1,000 head of livestock and many scores of exhibits and demonstrations in practical farming subjects; the mid-season auto show of more than 100 models; the farm bureau project exhibits by thirty-one different county farm bureaus; the four nights of society horse shows; the great horse, auto and whippet dog racing program in front of the grandstand; Peter Manning, 1:56¾, on Wednesday, August 31, in a race to set a new world's trotting record; and the mammoth night show, "The Fall of Troy," which is put on in front of the grandstand each evening of the fair.

The State Fair free camp of eighty acres is a feature in itself, and the mammoth tent city in which approximately 25,000 vistors will take their outing at this year's fair, is a sight well worth seeing.

The following pages give a bird's-eye view of the main attractions which everyone will want to visit while attending the exposition. Even with the space devoted here, some of the features have been left out for lack of room. It is impossible to see the whole fair in one day's time. It is recommended that at least two or three days be devoted to this exposition if the most is to be made of this opportunity.

The State Fair Board extends a most hearty welcome to all Iowa and to the thousands from neighboring states who will take their outing at the 1927 Fair. It provides one of the finest vacations and one of the most profitable trips that one could possibly take. Every effort has been made to build this year an exposition of even greater usefulness and pleasure to visitors than the record-breaking fairs of former seasons. It is the hope of the management that everyone, in returning home, will feel that it has been one of the most pleasant and beneficial trips that he has ever taken.

EDUCATIONAL EXPOSITION.

One of the first buildings which should be visited upon arriving at the fair grounds is the new Educational Building which flanks Grand Avenue directly across from Machinery Hall. This structure is 110 feet wide and 610 feet long and contains more than 90,000 square feet of exhibits. On the first floor are housed the displays of the State University, Iowa State College, the State Teachers' College, School for Blind, School for Deaf, the Iowa State Highway Commission, the Board of Control, and Boys and Girls' Club work. The Boys and Girls' Club work section is featured by a series of lectures and demonstrations being put on each day of the fair by champion club teams from every county in the state. On the mezzanine floor of the building are the exhibits by the public schools, the independent and denominational colleges and the Iowa welfare institutions. The north side of the building contains the State Fair Grandstand providing more than 12,000 comfortable seats for the afternoon racing and the evening fireworks programs.

IOWA WILD LIFE EXHIBIT.

Directly inside the main entrance to the fair grounds on the north side of Grand Avenue is situated the new $40,000 building devoted to the wild life of Iowa, which has been constructed during the past year by the Fish and Game Department. This building contains exhibits of all the birds, animals and fish which are native to Iowa. Special attention is directed to the series of aquariums which contain more than 5,000 fish. On each day of the fair moving picture programs are conducted in the auditorium of this building and these are open to the public free of charge.

MOTOR SHOW.

The unusually large number of new models which has been brought out during the past spring and summer by motor car manufacturers makes the motor show of this summer one of the most attractive features on the fair grounds. This show is located in Machinery Hall and occupies about two-thirds of the exhibit space in this big building. It includes over 100 models of automobiles, trucks and tractors, embracing many of the new 1928 creations never before shown in Iowa. There is no extra charge for admission to Machinery Hall.

INFORMATION.

For the convenience of fair visitors, special information booths have been opened, both on the fairgrounds and in the city of Des Moines. In the Administration Building, situated at the corner of Rock Island Avenue and Grand Avenue is a special bureau where information may be obtained concerning the fair and the location of all its various features and departments. In this building are likewise located the offices of the officers and superintendents of the various departments, and the press bureau. On Grand Avenue immediately across the street from the east entrance to the grandstand is a special information bureau, being operated by the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce and the Des Moines Automobile Club in cooperation with the fair management. This bureau will furnish information concerning points of interest in Des Moines, directions about the city, and road conditions in various parts of the state.

FARM IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY.

The largest farm implement and home equipment exposition in recent years will be found in the forty-acre machinery section which is located just inside the main entrance to the fairgrounds on the south side of Grand Avenue. Machinery Hall, which occupies the center of this tract, is given over largely to displays of new and improved home conveniences of all kinds. Extending to the south from Machinery Hall are the exhibits of heavy farm machinery and demonstrations of different implements in actual operation. The person contemplating the purchase of new farm equipment of any kind will find that by visiting this tract, all these various devices may be compared at first hand and invaluable information obtained which will be of help in reaching a correct decision.

F. E. SHELDON, MT. AYR.
Treasurer Iowa State Fair and National Live Stock Show.

NATIONAL LIVESTOCK SHOW.

The livestock show of 1927 has reached the largest proportions in State Fair history. It embraces 6,000 head of the finest stock from all of America's best known breeding farms, in addition to extensive entries of special Iowa bred and Iowa owned horses, cattle, swine and sheep. Included in the show are several world champions in the cattle classes.

The Boys and Girls' Livestock Show is likewise deserving of special attention. This embraces approximately 1,000 head of pigs, calves, and sheep in addition to a large number of poultry entries. The Baby Beef show, which is situated in the Baby Beef barn, directly inside the entrance on Rock Island Avenue, is said to be the largest and finest of its kind ever held in this country. Livestock judging will be in progress from Friday, August 26, through Thursday, September 1, in the Livestock Pavilion, and visitors will find ample free seating accomodations in this building for their convenience. The climax of the livestock show will be the great parade of prize-winning stock which will take place in front of the grandstand on Thursday, September 1. Every possible convenience has been arranged for visitors who wish to inspect the livestock during the fair. All of the buildings are fireproof and well-lighted and ventilated.

FEEDER CATTLE AND MEAT EXHIBIT.

Directly inside the main entrance to the Cattle Barn is the enlarged exhibit devoted to the subject of more profitable beef production and the display of beef as it is prepared for commercial purposes. This exhibit is arranged under the joint sponsorship of the Extension Department, Iowa State College, the Sioux City Stock Yards, the United States Department of Agriculture and the Iowa State Fair. It comprises thirty head of feeder stock showing the various grades of steers, both before they have been fed out and after being fed out, and pointing out the types which are more profitable from the standpoint of the farmer. Various feeding rations which have been found most satisfactory are likewise demonstrated in this exhibit. In another section is a display of all the commercial meat cuts, showing the new government markings whereby the better grades of meat are designated. Experts will be on duty with this exhibit throughout the period of the fair to answer questions on any subject pertaining to cattle feeding or cattle production.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

The agricultural exhibits always constitute one of the greatest features of the fair. These are more interesting than usual this year, due to the fact that many classes have been revised and a number of new features added to the competition. The main agricultural exhibits are to be found in the main Agricultural Building located at the junction of Grand Avenue and Rock Island Avenue. These include the county agricultural exhibits, Individual Farm Exhibits, and displays of seven major farm bureau projects which have been conducted by the men's farm bureaus during the past year. This building also houses the Horticultural Exposition which includes displays of all of Iowa's orchard products and a special display devoted to the subject of edible nuts. The Midwest Gladiolus Show, embracing nearly 500,000 blooms, occupies the center of the building and provides a gorgeous centerpiece around which the other exhibits are arranged.

On the south balcony of the building is the Culinary Exposition, including cakes, cookies, jams, canned fruits, and similar items entered by housewives from all parts of the state.

IOWA DAIRY SHOW.

On the north balcony is the annual Iowa Dairy Exposition, sponsored jointly by Iowa State College, the State and National Dairy Councils, the Iowa Creamery Association, the Iowa Department of Agriculture and the Iowa State Fair. Features of this show include: exhibits of all kinds of dairy equipment; a display by Iowa State College showing butter making, cheese making, and ice cream manufacturing; a series of displays pointing out the value of dairy products from a nutrition standpoint; an exhibit by creameries which are making the "Iowa Brand" butter; and a huge statue which is made exclusively from Iowa butter.

FARM BUREAU EXHIBITS

Thirty-one county farm bureaus, under the joint sponsorship of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation and the State Fair Board, have arranged a series of displays which are well worth the attention and study of every farmer attending the fair. These displays present all of the new projects in the field of farming and farm home improvement which have been conducted during the past year in various parts of the state. Seven of these exhibits, which have been arranged by the men's farm bureaus, are located in the Agricultural Building. These take up such subjects as soil improvement, marketing, swine management, Boys and Girls' Club work, sweet clover, and soil erosion. They show how the projects were conducted and the benefits received from them. The twenty-four projects which have been arranged by the women's farm bureaus are housed in the Women's Building and cover special home studies including clothing, nutrition, home beautification, and home management. In each instance, leaders from these counties are on duty with the exhibits each day of the fair to explain them to interested visitors and to assist those who may wish to put on similar activities in their own localities.

The Farm Bureau is maintaining two special headquarters for members on the State Fair grounds. The general headquarters is located in the Agricultural Building and includes a special display covering the major activities now being sponsored by the state federation. A camp headquarters for campers and friends is to be found in the farm bureau camp ground, immediately east of the Poultry Building. Members of the federation are invited to register at these headquarters while they are at the Fair. The big farm bureau feature of the exposition is the special program which will be held in the Assembly Tent just east of the Livestock Pavilion on Monday, August 29. Noted speakers along agricultural lines are scheduled to appear on this program, and all farmers, whether members of the farm bureau or not, are invited to attend.

STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.

The State Board of Control has two interesting exhibits at this year's State Fair. In the east room on the ground floor of the Educational Building is a display showing the work which is being done by the fifteen different institutions which are operated under the supervision of the board. The features of this exhibit include shoes, cabinet work, carving, fancy work, and other articles which are made by the inmates of these institutions. A number of the orchard and garden products raised at the various schools and asylums are also on display. In the Cattle Barn is a splendid exhibit of fine dairy cattle for which the Board of Control is famous and which has always attracted large comment, both at the Iowa State Fair and at

ART EXHIBIT.

A new art hall is being dedicated this year in connection with the opening of the new $350,000 Educational Building. All of the art features which were formerly housed in the Women's Building will now be found in this new gallery on the second floor of the Educational Building. This includes paintings and drawings by Iowa artists in the statewide competition for approximately $650 in cash prizes offered by the fair. It also includes a splendid exhibit of oils by leading American painters which has been brought to the fair through the courtesy of the Chicago Galleries Association. Lovers of art will find it very much worth while to pay a visit to this department while attending the fair.

BOYS AND GIRLS' CLUB WORK.

One of the outstanding features of the State Fair is the second annual Iowa Boys and Girls' 4-H Club Congress. More than 1,000 boys and girls from farms in all parts of the state are meeting and competing in this event this summer. Its various features extend through the entire eight-day program of the fair, and no one should leave without viewing at least a few of the inspiring exhibits which have been brought together by these junior farmers.

The Congress is divided into three main classifications. The first of these is the Junior Livestock Show embracing more than 1,000 head of prize calves, pigs, sheep, and poultry. The Baby Beef show, which is located in the Baby Beef Barn, comprises more than 500 head alone, and is said to be one of the largest and finest in the entire country. The Boys and Girls' pigs will be found in the Swine Pavilion, the lambs in the Sheep Barn, and the poultry in the Poultry Building. Another important division of this event is the series of exhibits and demonstration contests which is being staged in the west room on the main floor of the new Educational Building. Included in this are demonstrations by both the boys and girls' clubs covering different projects in which they have been engaged during the past year, and exhibits by different clubs throughout the state, showing their activities. Demonstrations are in progress in the auditorium in the Educational Building continuously throughout the period of the fair, both morning and afternoon. The third main classification in the junior section embraces the special judging contests for both boys and girls, individually and by teams, covering livestock, corn and other farm produce. These judging contests are held in the Livestock Pavilion and are open to the public free of charge.

The State Fair Board furnishes free dormitories for all who are participating in the Boys and Girls' Club Congress. Two special buildings at the east end of the fairgrounds are set aside for this purpose. The Fair Board also furnishes meals at cost to all these boys and girls, in a special dining hall southeast of the Women's Building. As in past years, selected members from different boys' clubs have charge of the ushering in the grandstand, both for the afternoon and evening programs.

JUDGING EVENTS.

A special invitation is extended to everyone to witness the judging of the various livestock classes while this work is in progress. On Friday and Saturday, the boys and girls' classes will be judged and beginning Monday, continuing through Thursday, the open classes will be judged. In the Stock Pavilion the judging of horses will take place in the mornings, and cattle in the afternoons. Swine will be judged continuously both morning and afternoon in the Swine Pavilion and sheep in the Sheep Barn. Poultry judging will be conducted in the Poultry Building beginning on Friday, August 26th and will probably be concluded by Saturday evening, August 27th. Judging in Agricultural and other classes will be conducted in the respective buildings where these exhibits are housed. Free seating accomodations are provided in the Livestock Pavilion.

The Society Horse Shows will be held four nights in the pavilion commencing August 29th. A few of the horse show classes, including ponies, will be judged in the open air ring which is east of the street car entrance.

IOWA STATE FAIR CAMP.

Those who have attended the State Fair for a number of years state that the eighty-acre free camp ground situated immediately east of the Exposition Grounds proper, is one of the finest sites for an ideal vacation afforded anywhere in the country. More than 25,000 visitors took advantage of this camp at the 1926 State Fair, and it is expected that this number will be passed this season. The camp is open free of charge during the entire period of the fair to everyone wishing to make use of it. Every possible convenience has been provided, including electric lights, city water service, excellent sanitary facilities, fire and police protection, and a government post office. Special entrances between the camp and the fairground are situated at Grand Avenue, at the street south of the Poultry Building, and at the street leading to the exhibitors' camp ground east of the Cattle and Swine Barns. A gate for exit only, for the convenience of those wishing to go to Des Moines, is provided at the south end of the camp ground, opening on Dean Avenue. Pass out checks are available for campers who wish to go back and forth between the fairgrounds and the camp during the day or evening. Those who wish to go to Des Moines should pass out through the special Dean Avenue exit; otherwise their tickets for the day will be taken up when they go through the fairgrounds.

Special camp locations are provided for the farm bureau, the farmers' union, and the Iowa county agents. In these camps, arrangements have been made so that neighbors from various counties may camp together while at the fair.

The State Fair Board has arranged for grocery service and meat market service for all those desiring to make use of it. Tent companies also maintain warehouses on the fairgrounds where camping equipment may be rented at reasonable rates.

IOWA STATE COLLEGE EXHIBIT.

As a result of the enlarged space afforded by the new Educational Building, the exhibit arranged by Iowa State College is larger than usual this year and provides a world of valuable information for the benefit of progressive farmers. This exhibit is to be found in the center room on the ground floor of the Educational Building. Among its chief features are displays of important results discovered in work conducted at the experiment station during the last year; a special section devoted to the subject of the European Corn Borer, and methods for its control; the destruction of rodents and other pests on the farm; livestock feeding methods; and crop questions. Visitors will find experts from Ames on duty with the exhibit each day of the fair. The men and women in charge are anxious to counsel with and be of assistance to any one interested in further information on any of the subjects portrayed.

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA.

With its twelve different schools and colleges, touching practically every field of activity in which people of the present day are interested, the State University of Iowa provides this year one of the most interesting exhibits on the entire fairgrounds in its big display in the center room of the Educational Building. Nearly every department of the University is represented in this showing. Among the features are the following:

The largest drug garden in America containing all of the leading plants and herbs from which modern medicines are made, arranged by the University's Pharmacy College; a model city operated by electricity and a model hydraulic engineering display, arranged by the Engineering College of the University; a demonstration of the methods used in correcting children's deformities, staged by the Medical School; studies in the straightening of teeth by the Dental College; glass blowing, in which souvenirs of glass will be given to visitors by the Physics Department of the Liberal Arts College; physical strength testing apparatus, on which those attending the fair may test their own abilities, arranged by the Athletic Department; methods employed in preserving and preparing birds and animals for museums, by the Taxidermy Department. Officials representing each field of university work will be in charge of various sections of this display to answer questions and discuss university subjects with those interested.

IOWA STATE TEACHERS' COLLEGE.

A display of all of the various courses being offered by the Iowa State Teachers' College, together with views of the campus, buildings, laboratories and classroom scenes, is to be found in the center room in the Educational Building. This exhibit will likewise serve as a headquarters and meeting place for teachers from all part of the state. Fifteen different schools are represented in this department. Each of these has a complete showing of the various courses in higher education which are offered, together with interesting views of the college buildings and campus. Each college will maintain in its booth a headquarters for its alumni who may be present at the fair, and also an information booth to answer the questions of high school graduates who may be interested in higher education. The schools participating in this exhibit are:

This exhibit affords a composite picture of all of the work which is being done at the State University, Iowa State College, State Teachers' College, the State School for the Blind, and the School for the Deaf and institutions under the direction of this board. Those who are interested in the progress of higher education in Iowa will find this exhibit highly interesting.

SHEPPARD-TOWNER CLINIC.

For the benefit of handicapped, crippled and deformed children, a special free clinic, operated under the Sheppard-Towner law is being conducted in the south wing on the ground floor of the Women's Building. This clinic is open to children between the ages of two and six. It is directed by the Extension Division of the State University of Iowa and widely known specialists from the Children's Department of the University Hospital. Parents having children who are hard to manage or abnormal or subnormal in any way are invited to make use of the services of this clinic during the fair.

TEAM PULLING CONTEST.

Five hundred dollars in cash prizes is offered in the fifth annual Iowa Team Pulling contest which begins on Monday, August 29, and which is open to any team in the state of Iowa. The contest is held on the special pulling field just south of the street car entrance. Bleacher accommodations for 2,000 spectators have been erected and standing room for several thousand more is available. The Iowa State Fair is sponsoring this contest in co-operation with the Horse Association of America and Iowa State College.

WOMEN'S EXPOSITION.

Two of the largest buildings on the fair grounds are devoted exclusively to women's features this summer, providing one of the finest women's expositions that the state has ever held. In the Women and Children's Building are being conducted the main programs, lectures, and demonstrations, while in the Exposition Building immediately adjoining are comprehensive exhibits given over to subjects of home decoration, fancy work and china painting. The lectures, demonstrations and exhibits in the Women and Children's Building cover almost every field of feminine interest. They embrace style show, cooking and canning demonstrations and lectures, Little Theater plays, pageants and dances, discussions of home management, home beautifying, nutrition, music, health and community welfare. The twenty-four exhibits by the county women's farm bureaus are also situated in this building. Judging in the Iowa Baby Health Contest, in which approximately 500 babies have been entered, takes place on the second floor, beginning August 26 and continuing through September 1. Every possible arrangement for the comfort and convenience of women visitors has been provided by the Fair Board. There are special porches and rest rooms, conference rooms and other special accommodations. The building is open both day and night, and women visitors are invited to avail themselves of its conveniences while attending the fair.

FOR CHILDREN.

For those parents who wish to leave their babies or older children under competent supervision while they enjoy the various features of the exposition, the Fair Board has provided a day nursery and a playground. Younger babies may be left at the day nursery for a nominal charge, where they will be looked after by competent nurses. Older children may be left in the playground immediately south of the Women's Building, where supervisors from the Des Moines Playground Association will take care of them at all hours of the day. This is one of the finest playgrounds in the state and is equipped with all the latest apparatus ranging from slides and a merry-go-round to sand piles.

HEALTH EXHIBIT.

At the south end of the Women and Children's Building, on the ground floor, is an interesting series of exhibits arranged by the State Department of Health and allied agencies. These displays contain scores of valuable suggestions to the public on the subject of public health work, control of disease, and prevention of illness. Cooperating with the state department in the exhibit are the Iowa Tuberculosis Association, the Commission for the Blind, Des Moines League for the Hard of Hearing, Iowa Children's Home, Federation of Women's Clubs, Hygeia, and the Division of Maternity and Infancy of the State University.

A total of eighteen prizes is offered, amounting to $160, in addition to a gold medal to the winner of first place and a silver medal to the winner of second place.

WOOL EXHIBIT.

Those interested in the sheep industry and in wool growing will find it very much worth while to pay a visit to the special fleece and wool exhibit situated on the balcony of the Sheep Pavilion. This exhibit is conducted jointly by the Iowa Fleece and Wool Growers' Association and the Iowa State Fair, and furnishes an excellent example of the fine quality of wool being produced by Iowa growers.

racing, motorcycle racing and whippet dog racing for purses aggregating nearly $30,000. The opening Friday and closing Friday of the fair, August 26 and September 2, are featured by two full programs of auto races with entries by some of the country's most famous dirt track champions, and several foreign drivers who have made notable records in competing this season on American tracks. There are eight automobile events scheduled for each of these two afternoons, ranging from the twenty-five lap sweepstakes to interesting specialty and novelty races. On the opening Friday afternoon the program is augmented by the first motorcycle race to be held on the Iowa State Fair grounds in many years. This event is a five-mile classic open to the world with purses aggregating $200. On the closing Friday of the fair the program will be augmented by whippet dog racing.

Five afternoons have been set aside for horse racing, the great favorite of all fair spectators. The purses offered in these events this year are approximately $20,000 and some of the fastest trotters, pacers, and runners in the midwest are listed among the entries. The opening Saturday is devoted exclusively to running races and has been designated as "Derby Day." The programs from Monday, August 29, through Thursday, September 1, will comprise both harness and running races. On Wednesday, August 31, the feature event of the entire program is scheduled—the appearance of Peter Manning, 1:56¾, world's champion trotter, in an attempt to break all existing half-mile track records, both for trotters and pacers. The present trotting record for half-mile tracks is 2:02¼, and the present pacing record is 2:01, made by Single G on the Iowa State Fair track in 1925. On all of the horse racing days from August 27 through September 1, the program will likewise include seven whippet dog races each day. These events were among the most popular at the 1926 Iowa State Fair, and they promise to provide wonderful sport for State Fair fans again this season.

SOUSA AND HIS BAND.

Probably the outstanding feature of the entire exposition is the appearance of Lieut.-Commander John Philip Sousa and His 70-Piece Concert Band. This is the first time that this world-famous organization has ever appeared at any state fair. Sousa will direct his band in person in three appearances every day of the fair: one at 11 o'clock each morning on the plaza, one immediately preceding the afternoon racing program in front of the grandstand, and one preceding the big night fireworks spectacle in front of the grandstand. In addition to these appearances, Sousa will present two special concerts on Sunday, which has been designated as "Music Day." Each of these Sunday concerts will be of two hours duration. The first will be Sunday afternoon and the second Sunday evening. In addition to all of the world-favorite selections from grand opera, light opera and popular compositions, Sousa will play a number of his most popular marches and other numbers during his appearance at the fair. He brings with him also, in addition to the regular members of the band, a number of soloists of wide individual reputation who will augment his programs each morning, afternoon and evening.

OTHER MUSICAL ATTRACTIONS.

In addition to Sousa and His Band, the State Fair likewise presents a splendid array of other musical features each day of the exposition. Five additional bands, orchestras and drum corps have been engaged to provide continuous music in all parts of the grounds each morning, afternoon and evening. These organizations include the Third District Legion Band, Argonne Post Band, Cliff Mandy's Orchestra, Martin's Orchestra, and the Old Soldiers' Drum Corps. In addition to these organizations which will play every day, the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Band will play two concerts on Wednesday, August 31.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME.

An outstanding feature of both the afternoon and evening grandstand programs is the great array of circus and hippodrome stars which has been engaged for the entire period of the fair. These include fifteen of the finest attractions of America and Europe and embrace such favorites of the sawdust ring as trapeze performers, clowns, bareback riders, contortionists, gymnasts and jugglers. A number of these acts have been featured with the country's greatest circuses. All fifteen of these attractions will appear in front of the grandstand as a part of the regular program each afternoon and each evening of the fair from August 26 to September 2.

"THE FALL OF TROY."

In presenting the fireworks spectacle for this year's Iowa State Fair, the State Fair Board feels that it has arranged for the largest and most entertaining production of this nature ever offered to the Iowa public. The spectacle, "The Fall of Troy," revolves around the famous story of Helen of Sparta and the nine-year siege of the walled city of Troy, which finally resulted in the complete demolition of the city. The action of the spectacle brings in such interesting scenes as the beautiful court of Helen, the building of the mammoth wooden horse, the bursting of the Trojan walls and the destruction of Troy. In producing this spectacle it is necessary to build and demolish an entire city each night of the fair. The stage required for its presentation is over 500 feet long, and more than 500 characters in full costume participate in the action. Many tons of fireworks will be consumed in carrying out the production with realism. In addition to the main spectacle, each evening program will include a special display of scenic and aerial fireworks embracing many novelties and new fireworks features never before staged in Iowa.

SOCIETY HORSE SHOWS.

On four evenings of the fair the popular Iowa State Fair Society Horse Shows will be presented in the Livestock Pavilion. These events begin on the evening of August 29 and will conclude on the evening of September 1. Some of the country's most famous show horse stables have entered notable lists of both harness and saddle horses for these events, promising keener competition and more interesting classes than have been witnessed at the fair in a number of years. In addition to harness and saddle classes a number of pony classes will be judged each evening. The Society Horse Shows will be opened each evening by a grand parade of prize-winning livestock.

LOUD SPEAKER.

The most powerful loudspeaking equipment ever installed in the state has been erected in front of the amphitheater this year. This embraces twenty-four huge amplifiers which carry announcements and musical numbers plainly to all parts of the grandstand, bleachers and around the race track. This has been installed for the additional convenience of the thousands of spectators who will enjoy the afternoon and evening program.

MOTORCYCLE POLO.

The first introduction of the interesting and thrilling sport of Motorcycle Polo will be given to Iowa State Fair visitors in front of the grandstand on Saturday afternoon, August 27. A contest between the Iowa Whites and the Wisconsin Reds will be staged immediately following the main racing program. This event will be under the direction of Gus Leiber, of the Motorcycle Attractions Company of Mason City. The sport is played like ordinary polo except that the players are mounted on motorcycles instead of horses. It is replete with thrills and spills and promises novel entertainment for the thousands who will enjoy the first presentation of this sport in the state of Iowa in front of the grandstand on Saturday afternoon.

MORRIS & CASTLE SHOWS AND RIDES

East of Grandstand and Educational Building.

Eighteen attractions and nine riding devices will make up the enlarged midway, the fair association having to set aside more ground space than ever before to accommodate all of the attractions.

Each year the Morris and Castle Shows introduce and present something new and out of the ordinary in the way of tented amusements, and this year they are presenting the thriller of the age called the "Globe of Death."

"THE GLOBE OF DEATH."

Imagine, if it be possible, motorcycles ridden at the break-neck speed of from 40 to 50 miles per hour inside of a steel egg-shaped globe, measuring 18 feet in diameter, and of lattice work, so that the audience can see the machines passing one another, looping-the-loop, or being trick-ridden on the inside.

"HOLLYWOOD FOLLIES."

An attraction far above the average run of midway girls' shows is one called "Hollywood Follies," a real musical revue in tabloid form, in which beautiful girls, talented and well trained, costumed in keeping with a road show production that visits the best road show houses, take part. They present a twenty-seven minute program featuring all of the latest musical comedy hits. Their living art poses, reproducing in life some of the famous old paintings, aided by the most modern electrical and scenic effects, make this attraction the "show beautiful."

THE PALACE OF ILLUSIONS

Is another brand new attraction with the Morris and Castle Shows for the first time this season. Professor Gilman's escape acts, Hindu mystery cabinets, and his trick of shooting through a woman, headline this attraction.

"JUNGLE BABIES."

Imagine, if you can, a little baby chimpanzee of but two years, presenting an act and working with a baby elephant of but 18 months—doing 17 minutes, in the vaudeville term. These two jungle beasts do everything but talk. They eat with knife and fork, play mouth organs, football, roller skate, and other stunts which set one to thinking.

BIG CIRCUS SIDE-SHOW.

One of the largest and strangest collection of people of the hinterlands, freaks and other curiosities are gathered together and placed on exhibition under one long stretch of canvas, all to be viewed for one admission; managed by the dean and greatest of all side-show managers, Johnny J. Bejano.

FREAK ANIMALS.

Those who were fortunate enough to have paid the mammoth freak animal exhibit a visit last summer will take it in again this year. Many more specimens have been added, including many of the domestic species.

"HALL OF FAME."

One of the most educational, interesting and complete wax exhibits of all the presidents of the United States that has been presented at any state fair.

SIDE-SHOW ANNEX.

Another side-show, featuring "Hippo," the strange and curious boy of 17 years, with the body of a child and a head measuring 38 inches in circumference; a Chinese torture-box mystery; a strong man, and "Emmett the Alligator Boy."

FUN HOUSES.

Three of the latest types of fun houses, "Fun on the Farm," the first time on the Iowa State Fairgrounds, "Lindy's Hop" and the Bughouse—for laughing purposes only.

RIDING DEVICES.

A miniature railroad for the kiddies, engine and little coaches that will bring delight to the little ones, and the other beautiful and elaborate, as well as thrilling and exciting rides such as the Dangler, the Hey-dey; Caterpillar ride; the "Dodgem, Jr."; Ferris Wheel; Whip; and the beautiful $16,000 Merry-Go-Round, ever popular with the little children.

NOTES ON PROGRAM IN MAIN AUDITORIUM.

Mrs. H. W. Spaulding, Chairman.

In presenting the program this year, the committee will again feature some of the worthwhile things pertaining to the home of today, demonstrating ways of making the home more attractive with a small outlay of money, increasing our love and appreciation of Art, Music and Drama and learning how to work and play together in our community life.

The State Parent-Teachers' Association will again have charge of the first period on the program, and have outlined an interesting and entertaining program consisting of Singing, Motion Pictures and Physical Education Demonstrations.

Miss Anna Henderson and Miss Edna Rhodes from the Applied Arts Department, Iowa State College, Ames, will give daily demonstrations in the making of Lamp Shades, Tying and Dyeing of materials for household decoration, and the proper selection of Draperies and other accessories in the home. These demonstrations are always a popular feature of the program and will be better than usual this year.

Mrs. Mignon Quaw Lott, Recreation Specialist, of Minneapolis, Minn., is an added attraction to the program this year and comes very highly recommended. She will appear on both morning and afternoon programs, and if you hear her once you will come back for all her programs, which are varied, entertaining, instructive and not a dull moment. Mrs. Lott has held positions in several State Colleges and is a lecturer and writer. Many of her articles have appeared in Country Gentleman, Farmers' Wife, Wallaces' Farmer and Successful Farming. She knows the rural situation from a most practical standpoint, and is at present conducting a writing service called "Programs with a Purpose", in which she specializes plays and entertainments on such subjects as nutrition, clothing, poultry and live stock. She has lectured in many states at Farmers' Short Courses and was one of the popular speakers at our own Short Course held at Ames last winter.

The Little Country Theater is with us again under the personal direction of Miss Fredrica V. Shattuck, head of the Department of Public Speech at Iowa State College, Ames. Two plays are presented daily. Miss Shattuck selects her players from her classes in play production, teachers in public schools and members of the Farm Bureau. Play production is growing in rural communities, consolidated schools and churches, and Miss Shattuck's well selected plays are an illustration of what may be accomplished along this line.

Miss Fannie Buchanan of Grinnell gives a daily talk and demonstration on Music in the Home, Community, and for the Individual. She has worked out a splendid program around these three heads, including songs, games, instrumental music pantomimes and feature dances. The program on "Measure Yourself Musically" will be especially entertaining and instructive. Miss Buchanan is also an author of note, having written several stories for children, is doing play writing and very recently has prepared two songs that are receiving much favorable comment: "Dreaming" for Four-H Club Girls and "Ploughing Song" for club boys. These songs are sure to prove very popular.

Another new feature is the playing of the Piano-Accordeon by Mrs. Odessa Porter Llewellyn of Waukee. The Piano-Accordion is not a common instrument in this part of the country, and is a novelty in the entertainment line. Mrs. Llewellyn has a very beautiful hand made instrument—the largest size made. She is a graduate of Drake Conservatory of Music, is a music teacher of prominence, having classes in Waukee, Adel and Dallas Center. She has been active in girls club work, having charge of the music memory work in her county.

The program would not be complete without the Artistic Dances put on for so many years by the pupils from Carolyn Putnam Crawford Studio, Des Moines, and this year presented by Marie Barnes Flanagan, successor to Mrs. Crawford, who has retired from the dancing profession and moved to California. Mrs. Flanagan has just returned from New York, where she has been studying with such teachers as Denishawn, Cre, Ned Wayburn and others, and we are assured of a very beautiful and entertaining program.

Anyone appearing on the daily program will be glad to hold conferences with interested persons. If you wish advice, come and talk over your special problems with those who can help you.

Conferences on various phases of Federation Work will be held, also Parent Teachers' work, Gardening, and other important subjects. These conferences will be held daily in the Conference Room on the main floor. Announcements will be made through the press regarding the conferences and also on the blackboard on veranda.

MONDAY, AUGUST 29.

Farm Bureau Day—Lindbergh Day in Des Moines.

Automobile and Implement Dealers' Day.

The day has been designated as Farm Bureau Day. The Iowa Farm Bureau Federation has arranged a program which will take place in the Assembly Tent east of the Stock Pavilion, commencing at 10:00 in the morning, also at 1:30 in the afternoon. The speakers appearing on the program will discuss agricultural problems, and are recognized as authority on these subjects. Anyone interested in agriculture, as well as members of the Farm Bureau, is invited to attend this meeting. The Farm Bureau will also maintain headquarters in the Agricultural Building throughout the period of the fair.

The Fair Management wishes to recognize the farm implement and automobile dealers who are participating in the fair with excellent exhibits of farm implements, home conveniences, automobiles, trucks, and other devices. The automobile and truck show will be found in the Machinery Hall. The machinery exhibit will occupy a large section of Machinery Hall and also about 40 acres of ground adjoining. The Iowa Implement Dealers' Association will maintain headquarters at their booth in the east end of Machinery Hall. Dealers attending the fair are invited to call at this booth and get acquainted with the officials of the association.

The Fair Management has also designated the day as Lindbergh Day. This is done in recognition of one of America's greatest heroes—the first aviator to make a non-stop flight across the Atlantic from New York to Paris, also to compliment him for his visit to the State of Iowa and her capital city on this day.

A stupendous scenic and pyrotechnical spectacle depicting "The Love Romance of Helen," which brought about the ten-year siege and overthrow of the ancient city of Troy. A spectacular reproduction of one of the old world's most terrific conflicts combining from ancient history and legend a medley of entrancing scenes, mystic ceremonies, spectacular and thrilling episodes. Awe-inspiring destruction of temples of the gods and palaces of kings. Marvelous scenic effects and properties, gorgeous costuming, pageantry in resplendent array. The entry of the great wooden horse within the city of Troy presents one of the most remarkable pageants ever attempted in connection with a production of this kind.

CRANE AUTOMATIC WATER SYSTEMS

Enjoy the finer, fuller, freer living a Crane automatic water system brings

Running water and plenty of it, for kitchen, bathroom and laundry, any time at the turn of a faucet —think what welcome relief that brings from the tiresome pump and pail, from the old drudgery of wash days, and canning time, and from the discomfort and inconvenience of "bath nights."

Water on tap for every household need, for watering your stock, for sprinkling the lawn, garden, etc., are important advantages provided by a Crane Water System on the farm. Its service is as dependable as any city water supply. Its upkeep is often less than city water taxes would be.

Water is drawn from any source—cistern, stream, spring or deep well. There is an economical right-size of Crane Water System to meet your special requirements. Your hardware dealer or plumbing contractor can get it and install it for you. For full information about the mechanics of farm water systems, write your name and address on a postcard and ask us for booklet, AD-1.
